

Quad Cities Lodging Association Scholarship Application

Purpose: Provide an opportunity for growth in the exciting and rewarding world of hospitality. The Quad Cities Lodging Association (QCLA) Scholarship is awarded to college or trade-school bound high school seniors or currently enrolled students pursuing a career in the hospitality field. Individuals currently employed in the hospitality industry wishing to pursue a degree in a related field may also apply.

Criteria: Proof of enrollment or application to:
Scott Community College, Blackhawk College, St. Ambrose University, Augustana College, Western Illinois University, Kaplan University and Ross College

High School Seniors, current undergraduate students, current trade school students, and current employees of hotels participating in the QCLA pursuing the following degrees are encouraged to apply:

- Sales/Marketing Degree
- Hotel Management Degree
- Accounting Degree
- Culinary Arts Degree
- Business Management Degree
- Chief Engineer / Maintenance Degree/Certificate
- IT Degree

Scholarship Awards: The following scholarships are awarded and paid directly to the educational institution.

1st $2,500

2nd $1,500

3rd $1,000

Please submit applications by April 20th

Quad Cities Lodging Association Scholarship

Name:

Address:

Phone:

E-Mail:

Degree/ Certificate Program:

College/Trade School:

Institution Address:

Submissions of Essay or Video applications accepted.

Tell us your passion for hospitality! What is your goal in education as you work toward your degree? What impact will you have on the Quad Cities hospitality industry?

Submit online at <http://www.qclahotels.org/> or via our Facebook Page

Deadline for applications is April 20, 2018

Recipient notifications sent out by June 1, 2018